

GAINING HELP FROM OTHERS

At times it may be helpful to gather others to help you in your fight. Below you will find a list of some groups or organizations that may help you by spreading the word to their members about your efforts, write letters of support on your behalf, or have extra words of guidance concerning your specific situation.

Before all else - reach out to JNCL-NCLIS for help, either through the Advocacy Support Request or by contacting our offices at info@languagepolicy.org.

Other organizations that might help you:

- Your State TESOL organization
- Your State Bilingual schools and/or organizations
- The Language Specific Organizations at work in your state:
 - AATF - American Association of Teachers of French
 - AATG - American Association of Teachers of German
 - AATI - American Association of Teachers of Italian
 - AATJ - American Association of Teachers of Japanese
 - AATK - American Association of Teachers of Korean
 - AATSEEL - American Association of Teachers of Slavic and East European Languages
 - AATSP - American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese
 - ACTR - American Council of Teachers of Russian
 - CLASS - Chinese Language Association of Secondary-Elementary Schools
 - NCLG - National Committee for Latin and Greek
 - NNELL - National Network for Early Language Learners
- Your State chapters of the American Federation of Teachers and/or the National Education Association
- Your Regional Conference Organizations
 - NECTFL
 - SCOLT
 - SWCOLT
 - CSC
 - PNCFL
- ACTFL
- Other state teachers organizations
 - Social Studies
 - Fine Arts
 - Computer Sciences
 - Career and Technical Education

While this is not an exhaustive list, this is a way to give you ideas for who might join you in your fight against attacks on language education, as well as who might be interested in helping during a proactive push for new funding or initiatives. All the links in this are to their national organizations, so you may have to do some research to find your specific state organization.